

Performance Information

Drama in the Woods is an open-air theatre company that produces promenade theatre performances in outdoor locations. The show will travel through the grounds and take place at different locations, staying close to the main facilities.

The children will be encouraged to join in the fun with the performers. This is an interactive theatre experience for children and parents/carers.

Meeting point at The Bothy Gardens. Please have tickets ready.

Children are the responsibility of the parent/carer at all times

Children are to be accompanied throughout the promenade performance.

You may like to bring a picnic blanket to sit upon in each performance area. Please make sure this is easy to pack away as you will be on the move a lot in this production.

Pushchairs are welcome, but please be aware that they are more difficult to navigate in some of the smaller performance areas. It is advised to have babies in slings or arms.

Should you wish wheelchair access, please contact Drama in the Woods at info@dramainthewoods.com to arrange an accessible route.

What if it rains?

If the weather is considered not to pose risk to either performers or audience, the show will go on. Come dressed for the weather

The venue and Drama in the Woods have the right to reschedule or cancel productions in adverse weather conditions.

You will be contacted in this instance, and a full refund will be offered for cancelled performances. Please wear appropriate attire if wet weather is forecast.
